Greetings and welcome denizens of the dai kaiju and giant monster fans to the premiere of the new All-Out Monster Revolt Radio Show! I am Justynn Tyme, your dedicated host for the next ninety minutes as we venture into the sky wave for a one of kind auditory experience.

We have combed the world over to bring you a kaleidoscope of giant monster themed audio artistry including but not limited to music, noise, soundscapes, and spoken word from every genre and of any number of styles. If we like it, we play it; it's that simple.

We take pride in bringing you a catalogue of aural oddities that you've never heard before. Delving in the rich and untamed regions of the independent musicians and sound artist where that magic happens, and then we blend in the more commercial work to create interesting show. You might not like everything we play but if you don't listen. You might miss the next big sound that turns your world upside down.
